

RODRIGO OCHAPARRREIRO

Lifestyle and Sport Photographer

INTRODUCTION

I like to photograph people. — playing sports, working, hanging out, being together, living.

From there into movement and athletic action, into the unposed moment, in between actions, into the spaces and environments that shape how we exist in the world.

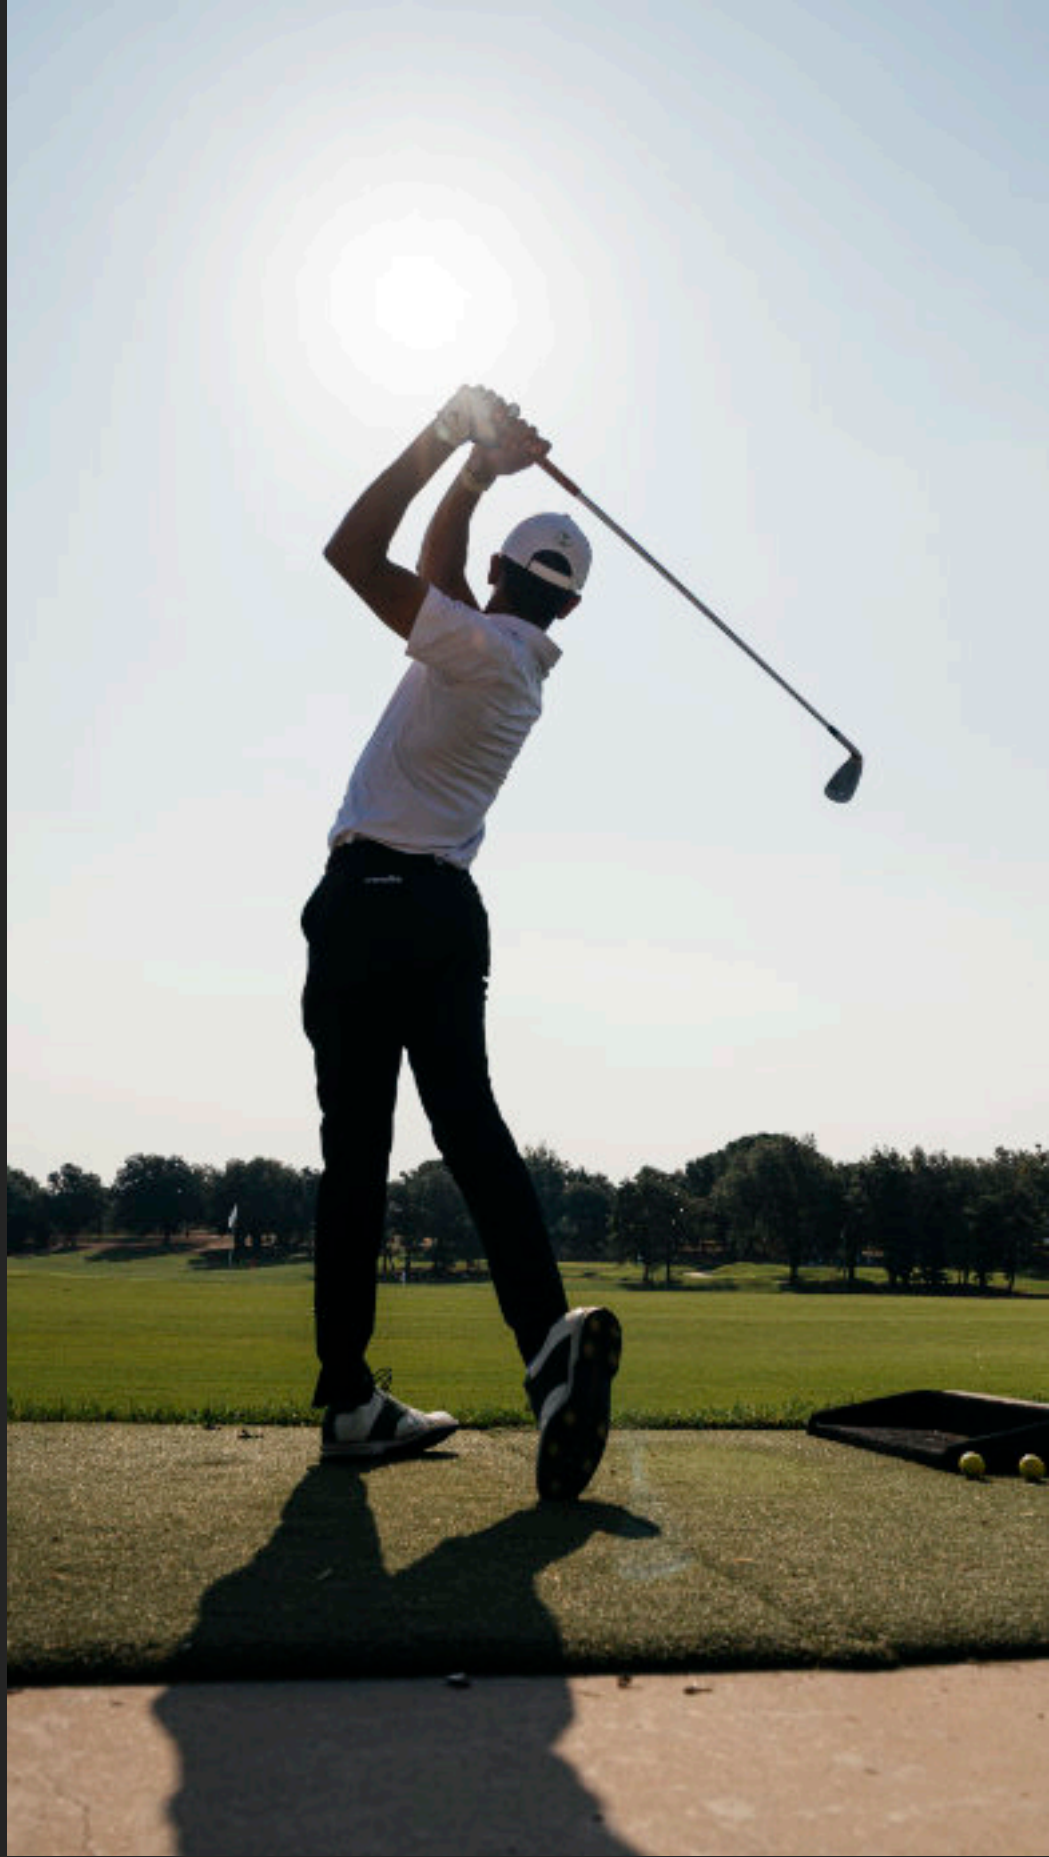

Lifestyle and sport with a documentary eye — real people, light and life as it happens.

Based in Barcelona. Shooting for brands across Europe and beyond.

A group of cyclists in dark gear are racing on a wet city street at night. The wet pavement reflects the bright headlights of the bikes, creating a shimmering effect. In the foreground, a person is holding a large umbrella, partially obscuring the view. The background shows tall city buildings and streetlights, with a crowd of spectators lining the street.
